

STUDIO CITY WATER PARK

STUDIO CITY DIVERSIFYING MACAU'S ECONOMY

INTRODUCTION

In April, Melco announced the highly anticipated opening of an unparalleled indoor water park and its own-branded hotel, Epic Tower, at Studio City Phase 2, demonstrating the Company's unwavering commitment to the continued growth and diversification of Macau's tourism industry.

Designed by renowned international architecture firm Zaha Hadid Architects, the USD1.2 billion Studio City Phase 2 will feature two luxury hotel towers – Epic Tower and W Macau, the Macau's all-new, all-weather, all-year-round water park, and state-of-the-art space for meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions. The extension project will complement Melco's existing offering of 'next-generation' world-class entertainment and further enhancing the distinctive Studio City brand.

INNOVATION

Designed by renowned architectural firm Zaha Hadid Architects, the USD1.2 billion Studio City Phase 2 project is set to open in phases. This latest expansion saw the opening of Macau's most exciting all new, all-weather and all-year-round indoor water park, further enhancing the cinematic-themed complex's position as a world-class leisure family entertainment venue.

The indoor water park features 7 purpose-built state-of-the-art water slides, including Macau’s first water coaster, “Lightspeed Shuttle”, which is equipped with specially designed nozzles to propel the raft and its occupants upward against the pull of the gravity leading the raft slides through a sequence of drops, uphill, turns and dark sections.

In addition to the existing outdoor water park, the indoor one also features the first-ever indoor surfing simulator in Macau that requires a certain level of skill to control one’s position and balance on the wave; Macau’s only indoor-outdoor Oblivion Pool offers guests a marveling view through the transparent bottom to enjoy a bird’s eye view from approximately 25 meters above the ground as if floats in the sky, 2 indoor wave pools, a 246-meter action river and a 3.7-meter-deep diving platform with a climbing wall. Whether seeking excitement, relaxation, or quality time with loved ones, Studio City Water Park offers something for everyone.
