

IAG Awards - Rising Star Nomination

Tuesday 15 August, 2023

- Phil Stormonth
- Country Manager – Macau
- Aristocrat Gaming

We are thrilled to nominate Phil Stormonth (Country Manager – Macau, at Aristocrat Gaming) for the Rising Star award. Phil has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership qualities, innovative thinking, and immense potential throughout his journey in the gaming industry. His remarkable achievements and contributions make him a standout candidate in this category.

After graduating with a law degree from the University of Brighton, Phil embarked on an international career that led him to Macau in 2013. In just a year, Phil's career pivoted to gaming and he has not looked back.

Here is an overview of Phil's career milestones:

- 2014 - Phil joined IGT's Systems Project Team after being promoted to System Sales Manager – a role that saw him travel across Asia. In his five years with IGT, Phil demonstrated exceptional problem-solving abilities and strategic thinking and his leadership acumen by effectively navigating diverse cultural landscapes across Asia.
- 2019 - After five years in Systems sales, Phil took a remarkable opportunity with Aristocrat and joined its EGM Sales team in Macau. This transition to EGM sales demonstrated his adaptability and eagerness to embrace challenges, and he has performed this role exceptionally.
- 2023 – Recently, Phil was promoted to the role of Country Manager – Macau. This promotion is a testament to his outstanding performance, deep understanding of the Macau market and his strong leadership skills.

Phil demonstrates a strong commitment to continuous learning and growth. His enthusiasm for the gaming industry, dedication to our Macau customers, and his passion for the Macau market render him an excellent candidate for the Rising Star award.

His leadership ability, growth mindset and remarkable potential are his greatest assets and will see him thrive as he progresses in his gaming career. At Aristocrat, we believe Phil has a bright future ahead of him and that his potential will set him up for continued success in the gaming industry.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions about Phil.