And to cater to the evolving needs and wants of its casino market and top-tier clientele, Okada Manila has 3 world-class and exclusive VIP Clubs, namely The Perlas Club, The Maharlika Club and the Okada VIP Club.

Okada Manila also has a resort-wide casino loyalty program called Reward Circle, offering members exclusive privileges and perks including a range of rewards for Tier Points earned by playing table games or electronic gaming machines. Members can likewise enjoy a range of fantastic hotel deals, retail and dining discounts, and access to special events and VIP experiences. There are five membership tiers in the Reward Circle program: Prime, Elite, Premium, Supreme, and top-tier Maharlika.

Luxurious Rooms

Luxury at its finest, the capacious property boasts of a total of 993 well-appointed rooms at its Pearl and Coral Wings ranging from 60-sqm deluxe rooms to fabulous suites and magnificent villas that measure up to 1,400-sqm. Depending on the category or wing, there are rooms facing the breathtaking view of the famed Manila Bay while others enjoy a view of the cityscape or Okada Manila's iconic The Fountain. All rooms are elegantly furnished with world-class features and amenities, including a digivalet, a tablet that allows one to control room functions with a single touch, and an intelligent bathroom with Japanese technology, as well as a jacuzzi for its rooms in the Pearl Wing.

The World's Best Flavors

Dining in Okada Manila is a gastronomical journey of various tastes from different cuisines, serving a plethora of the world's flavors. From an international buffet to Chinese, Japanese, Italian and Korean cuisines, dining enthusiasts are spoilt for choices.

Medley Buffet Restaurant, the property's flagship restaurant, showcases a range of international cuisines and fresh seafood. Japanese cuisine can be enjoyed at Enbu for kushiyaki and ramen finds while Kappou Imamura serves premium courses, and Ginza Nagaoka for omakase. Yu Lei serves a taste of premium modern fusion Shanghainese cuisine while Red Spice is the go-to restaurant for more casual Chinese dining featuring classic dishes from different Chinese influences. Italian cuisine enthusiasts can savour the best of Italian flavors at La Piazza. As for Filipino comfort food, Kiapo is known for classic favorite Filipino dishes. And for afternoon snacks or light meals, the Lobby Lounge offers a range of sandwiches, pasta dishes, cakes and pastries, etc.

A Rejuvenating Experience

The center of ultimate relaxation and wellness is the Forbes 5-star rated The Retreat Spa. Spanning 3,000-sqm, the spa has private treatment rooms with spa beds with chromatherapy, which can be electronically adjusted to zero gravity, reducing stress and relieving joint pains. A unique feature is the Wave Dream Room—the first in Southeast Asia that allow guests to fully relax and meditate to the sounds and images of rippling water as light projects to the ceiling to calm the brain, and de-stress the body. Renowned for their range of services such as signature massages by professional spa therapists, The Retreat Spa is the epitome of a full spa experience with an exclusive access to all its spectacular amenities—fully-equipped gym, pool, tonic bar with hand-crafted tea, fruits and snacks, sauna, and steam rooms.

Diversified Events Portfolio

Okada Manila also caters to business travelers and those looking for a MICE (meetings, incentives, conferences and exhibitions) venue.

The property recently introduced its premier Executive Lounge, catering to business travelers and vacationing guests. Private and well-appointed, the new venue is capacious at over 600 sqm that can accommodate more than a hundred guests; and complete with deluxe features and topnotch service.

With a diversified venue portfolio, Okada Manila also makes a perfect venue for MICE. Catering to groups of various sizes, the function rooms range from grand ballrooms to meeting rooms. Cove Manila, the biggest indoor beach club and night club is also open for bigger events. The award-winning Culinary team offers well-curated menus incorporated in events packages that make for memorable events. The property also opened its Crystal Pavilion to cater to exhibitions and expositions; and the exclusive Chairman's Lounge for intimate functions.

More to Enjoy

Guests can enjoy shopping at the property's Retail Boulevard for diverse finds.

As one of the country's grandest destinations, Okada Manila prides itself in serving up larger-than-life experiences, with The Fountain as its crown jewel. This $30-million extraordinary feature offers a breathtaking show of artistically choreographed water, light and music performances that can rival those of Dubai's Burj Khalifa and Las Vegas' Bellagio. Measuring 37,464 sqm, which is equivalent to 50 Olympic-size swimming pools, The Fountain is equipped with cutting-edge underwater robots, over two-thousand dazzling lights, dozens of high-fidelity speakers, and more than 700 high-power jets that can shoot water that surpasses the height of Okada Manila's 19-storey building, as well as showcases projections during stunning water shows.

Renowned Japanese hospitality, warmth of Filipino service

Okada Manila bears the prestigious Forbes Travel Guide five-star rating for the fourth year in a row (2023). Forbes Travel Guide is a world-renowned authority on excellence in hospitality and its five-star rating is highly coveted in the industry as a merit of distinction.

Okada Manila has been known for its outstanding service, which showcases the best of Japanese and Filipino hospitality. The property brings to forth the forward-thinking Japanese philosophy of "omotenashi" – anticipating guests' current and future needs in advance and "magokoro" hospitality or sincerity and devotion. These are complemented by the Filipinos' dedication to hard work, passion, innate warm hospitality and cheerful disposition."
